

Hello everyone, I am an Alcoholic, a member of the Paradise Group on Hamilton mountain, I have the honor and privilege to be your Panel 64, Area 86 Western Ontario Delegate, and my name is Jim W.

What a week it was at the 65 General Service in downtown Manhattan, the drive was good, weather perfect. I was shocked at the 14.00 toll to use the Lincoln Tunnel but as they say welcome to New York. My day at the Conference generally started with attending the Serenity Meeting every morning at 7.00am, then working straight through and ending between 9-10 pm every. On Sunday afternoon I presented before the Conference on Safeguarding our Traditions through the Evolution of Technology.

When I first accepted this loving invitation to present I was stumped. I lost two nights of sleep worrying over what I could possibly say to help guide us for years to come. Armed with a small prayer and faith I started my journey with some questions. "How have we guarded them up until now?" "What did our founders say?" My search began with my Digital Archives Subscription from the Grapevine; I have always found the answers there.

To Serve Is to Live June 1951 Vol 8 No.1

Dr. Bob and Bill looked out upon a fellowship of surpassing unity; one on which the sun never sets. As I look out upon you today I see the same unity. I can hear our founders say "Soon you must lend a hand. These are AA's Arms of Service, these are our Traditions. Come and help us administer them; times have changed and continue to change. This is your Legacy of Service. Please accept it now and guard it well."

The candidates approved by the General Service Board are subject to the approval of the General Service Conference. The Trustees Nominating Committee receives advice from and consults with the A.A.W.S. and the A.A. Grapevine boards with respect to potential General Service Trustees, nontrustee directors, and Regional Trustees to serve on the respective boards. The Trustees Nominating Committee also recommends a slate of trustees to serve as officers of the General Service Board.”

“General service trustees are chosen from among current or past nontrustee directors of the two corporate boards, A.A. World Services and A.A. Grapevine, Inc. Since nontrustee directors are already serving (or have served) on one of the corporate boards, their qualifications are well known to the members of the respective boards, and it has been the privilege of those boards to propose the name of a candidate to represent them on the General Service Board.”

Be revised to read (deleting the final phrase):

“General service trustees are chosen from among current or past nontrustee directors of the two corporate boards, A.A. World Services and A.A. Grapevine, Inc. Since nontrustee directors are already serving (or have served) on one of the corporate boards, their qualifications are well known to the members of the respective boards.”

22. Under NOMINATING in Chapter 9 (The General Service Board) of The A.A. Service Manual, the following sentence be inserted to begin the description of the trustees’ Nominating Committee:

“Reviews procedures for selection of candidates.”

23. Under Choosing Nontrustee Directors in Chapter 10 (The Board’s Operating Corporations) of The A.A. Service Manual, the second paragraph that currently begins:

25. In the section Group Information in Chapter 2 (The Group and Its G.S.R.) of The A.A. Service Manual, the following text be added to the beginning of the third paragraph:

“G.S.O. also uses this database to generate mailing lists for A.A. newsletters. Group information included in G.S.O.’s database may be used by areas and districts for various purposes: the delegate may use it to communicate with groups; some areas use it for their meeting locators or to generate mailing lists.”

26. The following text be added at the end of the section District Information in Chapter 3 (The District and the D.C.M.) of The A.A. Service Manual:

“The information provided on this form is stored in G.S.O.’s database, which is accessible to the area registrar. G.S.O.’s database also provides the capability for the area registrar to identify district officers and service chairs with local or specific information that then can be used to facilitate communication.”

27. In Chapter 5 (The Area Committee) of The A.A. Service Manual, a new section be added after Financial Support with the following text:

“Area Information

The outgoing delegate provides G.S.O. with contact information for all incoming area officers and committee chairs. This information is stored in G.S.O.’s database, which is also accessible to the area registrar, and is used to communicate with these officers and committee chairs throughout their rotation.”

28. A new subsection of the section STIMULATING INTEREST IN GENERAL SERVICE be added to Chapter 1 (Introduction to General Service) in The A.A. Service Manual with the following text:

Reactivating districts: Frequently, there is a need within an Area to attempt to reactivate districts or groups that have become inactive or are unrepresented. Areas encourage participation in general service in many ways, especially by direct contact with groups by district/area officers to provide information about service events and opportunities to carry the message beyond the group level. Sometimes there is district-to-district sponsorship in which an active district shares its experience and suggestions to “jump start” activity among groups within the inactive neighboring district.

29. A new section on “Regional Forums” be added to Chapter 9 (The General Service Board) of The A.A. Service Manual before the “World Service Meeting” section with the following text:

“Regional Forums

Regional Forums, which originated in 1975, are weekend-long sharing and informational sessions which provide unique opportunities to share and exchange valuable experience, ask questions and spark new ideas. They are also designed to help the General Service Board, A.A. World Services, and A.A. Grapevine; and G.S.O. and Grapevine staff members stay in touch with A.A. members, trusted servants and newcomers throughout the A.A. service structure. G.S.O.’s staff member on the Regional Forums assignment coordinates details for the Forum and works closely with the volunteer host chair who recruits volunteers to assist staff with hospitality, set-up and registration during the Forum. Forums are held on a rotating basis, at the request of each region. There is no registration fee for Regional Forums. The General Service Board covers the expenses of meeting rooms. As all Forums are intended to be sharing sessions, no formal actions result. Sharing is captured in Forum Final Reports, which are distributed to all attendees, and are available on G.S.O.’s website. Regional Forums carry A.A.’s message of love and service by improving communication at all levels of our Fellowship.”

30. A new section on “Local Forums” be added to Chapter 9 (The General Service Board) of The A.A. Service Manual and requested that draft language be brought back to the 2016 Conference Committee on Report and Charter.
